THE EVOLUTION OF HYGIENE

TOTO leads Japan's sanitary ware industry, and their name has become synonymous with high-standards and cutting-edge technology both in Japan and around the World. As a customer-service focused company, TOTO works hard to enhance all aspects of their products from R&D to production and sales as well as after sales service. The company uses customer feedback to improve technology and consistently better the company and its products. With a mission to redefine cleanliness, TOTO focuses on making lives and lifestyles better, championing change with new philosophies that incorporate ergonomic and emotional engineering.

ECOWASHER

A fundamental version of the Washlet, the ECOWASHER summarises the virtues of basic yet high level of cleanliness. The spray nozzle operates solely by the water pressure hence, does not require any use of electricity. Dedicated to the minimalists who prefer one main function over elaborated ones, the ECOWASHER would be just as enjoyable to use as the TOTO Washlet.
